LAND MANAGEMENT, ENVIRONMENT & SOLID-WASTE: INSIDE EDUCATION AND BUSINESS IN CENTRAL ASIA
ERASMUS-EDU-2023-CBHE Project Number: 101129032

MICRO-CREDENTIAL

LAND MANAGEMENT IN CENTRAL ASIA

2.- Land Management Concepts and Control Processes

Quiz

Week 2 – Land Management Basics

Co-funded by the European Union

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them.

Student Worksheet

Lesson Topic: Concept of Land Management and Control Systems

Name:

Date:

Instructions

Read each question carefully and complete all sections. For multiple choice questions, choose one correct answer. For true/false questions, write True or False. For short answer and discussion questions, respond in clear, logically structured sentences using appropriate land management and economic terminology.

Part 1. Multiple Choice Questions

1. Land management is best defined as:

A. The random distribution of land resources

B. The stewardship and sustainable use of land resources

C. The elimination of land ownership

D. Only agricultural land planning

Your answer: ____________

2. Stewardship of land resources means:

A. Exploiting land without regulation

B. Managing land responsibly for present and future generations

C. Selling land for profit only

D. Ignoring environmental impacts

Your answer: ____________

3. Land management systems include:

A. Land administration, planning, and governance structures

B. Cultural festivals only

C. Weather monitoring systems

D. Personal land ownership decisions

Your answer: ____________

4. Conscious land management refers to:

A. Planned and regulated land use decisions

B. Natural environmental processes

C. Random land allocation

D. Ignoring land policies

Your answer: ____________

5. Spontaneous land management occurs when:

A. Land use develops naturally without formal planning

B. Governments strictly regulate land

C. Land is used only for agriculture

D. Land markets are eliminated

Your answer: ____________

6. Which of the following is an important element of the land management process?

A. Land use planning

B. Land administration

C. Monitoring and regulation

D. All of the above

Your answer: ____________

7. Land is considered in economics as:

A. An unlimited resource

B. A scarce factor of production

C. A temporary asset

D. A non-economic resource

Your answer: ____________

8. Land valuation helps to:

A. Support taxation, investment, and land markets

B. Prevent land development

C. Remove ownership rights

D. Ignore economic efficiency

Your answer: ____________

9. Sustainable land management requires balancing:

A. Economic development, social equity, and environmental protection

B. Urban development only

C. Agricultural interests only

D. Private ownership only

Your answer: ____________

10. Effective land management depends on:

A. Clear property rights and legal frameworks

B. Absence of regulations

C. Ignoring market mechanisms

D. Limiting land information systems

Your answer: ____________

Part 2. True / False

11. Land management involves planning, administration, and monitoring of land resources.

Answer: ____________

12. Land is an unlimited resource and does not require careful management.

Answer: ____________

13. Land management systems help organize how land is owned, used, and regulated.

Answer: ____________

14. Conscious land management includes government policies and planning decisions.

Answer: ____________

15. Economic aspects of land management include land valuation, taxation, and land markets.

Answer: ____________

Part 3. Short Answer Questions

16. Explain the concept of land stewardship and why it is important for sustainable development.

17. Describe the difference between conscious land management and spontaneous land management.

18. What are the main elements of the land management process?

19. Why is land considered an important economic resource?

20. Explain how land management systems contribute to effective land governance.

Part 4. Discussion Questions

21. Analyze how land management practices influence economic development and environmental sustainability.

22. Discuss the importance of land administration systems and property rights in modern land management.

____
____
____
____

23. Evaluate the role of land markets, taxation, and valuation in the economic management of land resources.

____
____
____
____

Teacher's Comment

____
____
____
____